OPENDOOR EDUCATION SEASONAL TRANSPORTATION RELEASE

I hereby give my child (children) _____ permission to:
Print child's name

- _____ travel only on authorized school vehicles.
- _____ leave from athletic games/practices with another athlete's parent.
- _____ travel with teammate to practice.

Please list names of parents or students approved for driving your child (children):

I understand that the ability of coaches and other school officials to properly supervise students may be impaired when students are not under their direct control. I agree that the coaches and Opendoor School should not be held accountable when students who are authorized to use alternative means of transportation do so. I understand that coaches reserve the right to refuse requests by players to leave their teams if, in the coaches' opinion, it serves the best interest of the individual or the program.

I have examined the student named on this form and completed the pre-participation physical evaluation. The athlete does not have apparent clinical contraindications to practice and can participate in the sport(s) as outlined on this form. A copy of the physical examination findings are on record in my office and can be made available to the school at the request of the parents. If conditions arise after the athlete has been cleared for participation, the physician may rescind the medical eligibility until the problem is resolved and the potential consequences are completely explained to the athlete (and parents or guardians).

CONCUSSION FORM

INFORMATION FOR STUDENT-ATHLETES & PARENTS/LEGAL CUSTODIANS

What is a concussion? A concussion is an injury to the brain caused by a direct or indirect blow to the head. It results in your brain not working as it should. It may or may not cause you to black out or pass out. It can happen to you from a fall, a hit to the head, or a hit to the body that causes your head and your brain to move quickly back and forth.

How do I know if I have a concussion? There are many signs and symptoms that you may have following a concussion. A concussion can affect your thinking, the way your body feels, your mood, or your sleep. Here is what to look for:

THINKING / REMEMBERING	PHYSICAL	EMOTIONAL / MOOD	SLEEP
Difficulty thinking clearly	Headache	Irritability-things bother you more easily	Sleeping more than usual
Taking longer to figure things out	Fuzzy or blurry vision	Sadness	Sleeping less than usual
Difficulty concentrating	Feeling sick to your stomach/queasy	Being more moody	Trouble falling asleep
Difficulty remembering new information	Vomiting/throwing up	Feeling nervous or worried	Feeling tired
	Dizziness	Crying more
	Balance problems
	Sensitivity to noise or light

Table is adapted from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (<http://www.cdc.gov/concussion/>)

What should I do if I think I have a concussion?

If you are having any of the signs or symptoms listed above, you should tell your parents, coach, athletic trainer, or school nurse so they can get you the help you need. If a parent notices these symptoms, they should inform the school nurse or athletic trainer.

When should I be particularly concerned?

If you have a headache that gets worse over time, are unable to control your body, throw up repeatedly, feel more and more sick to your stomach, or your words are coming out funny/slurred, you should let an adult like your parent or coach or teacher know right away so they can get you the help you need before things get any worse.

What are some of the problems that may affect me after a concussion?

You may have trouble in some of your classes at school or even with activities at home. If you continue to play or return to play too early with a concussion, you may have long-term trouble remembering things or paying attention, headaches may last a long time, or personality changes can occur. Once you have a concussion, you are more likely to have another concussion.

How do I know when it's ok to return to physical activity and my sport after a concussion?

After telling your coach, your parents, and any medical personnel around that you think you have a concussion, you will probably be seen by a doctor trained in helping people with concussions. Your school and your parents can help you decide who is best to treat you and help to make the decision on when you should return to activity/play or practice. Your school will have a policy in place for how to treat concussions. You should not return to play or practice on the same day as your suspected concussion.

You should not have any symptoms at rest or during/after activity when you return to play, as this is a sign your brain has not recovered from the injury.

This information is provided to you by the UNC Matthew Gfeller Sport-Related TBI Research Center, North Carolina Medical Society, North Carolina Athletic Trainers' Association, Brain Injury Association of North Carolina, North Carolina Neuropsychological Society, and North Carolina High School Athletic Association.

	A concussion is a brain injury, which should be reported to my parents, my coach(es), or a medical professional if one is available.
	A concussion can affect the ability to perform everyday activities such as the ability to think, balance, and classroom performance.
	A concussion cannot be "seen." Some symptoms might be present right away. Other symptoms can show up hours or days after an injury.
	I will tell my parents, my coach, and/or a medical professional about my injuries N/A and illnesses.	N/A
	If I think a teammate has a concussion, I should tell my coach(es), parents, or N/A medical professional about the concussion.	N/A
	I will not return to play in a game or practice if a hit to my head or body causes any N/A concussion-related symptoms.	N/A

	I will/my child will need written permission from a medical professional trained in concussion management to return to play or practice after a concussion.
	Based on the latest data, most concussions take days or weeks to get better. A concussion may not go away right away. I realize that resolution from this injury is a process and may require more than one medical evaluation.
	I realize that ER/Urgent Care physicians will not provide clearance if seen right away after the injury.
	After a concussion, the brain needs time to heal. I understand that I am/my child is much more likely to have another concussion or more serious brain injury if return to play or practice occurs before concussion symptoms go away.
	Sometimes, repeat concussions can cause serious and long-lasting problems.
	I have read the concussion symptoms on the Concussion Information Sheet.
